

RedR Southern Africa Register of Engineers for Disaster Relief

Paul Hodge BSc Eng, FICE, CE.
Tony Murray BSc Eng, Pr. Eng,
B.Com, FSAICE, FIMESA.

RedR Vision & Mission

Vision :

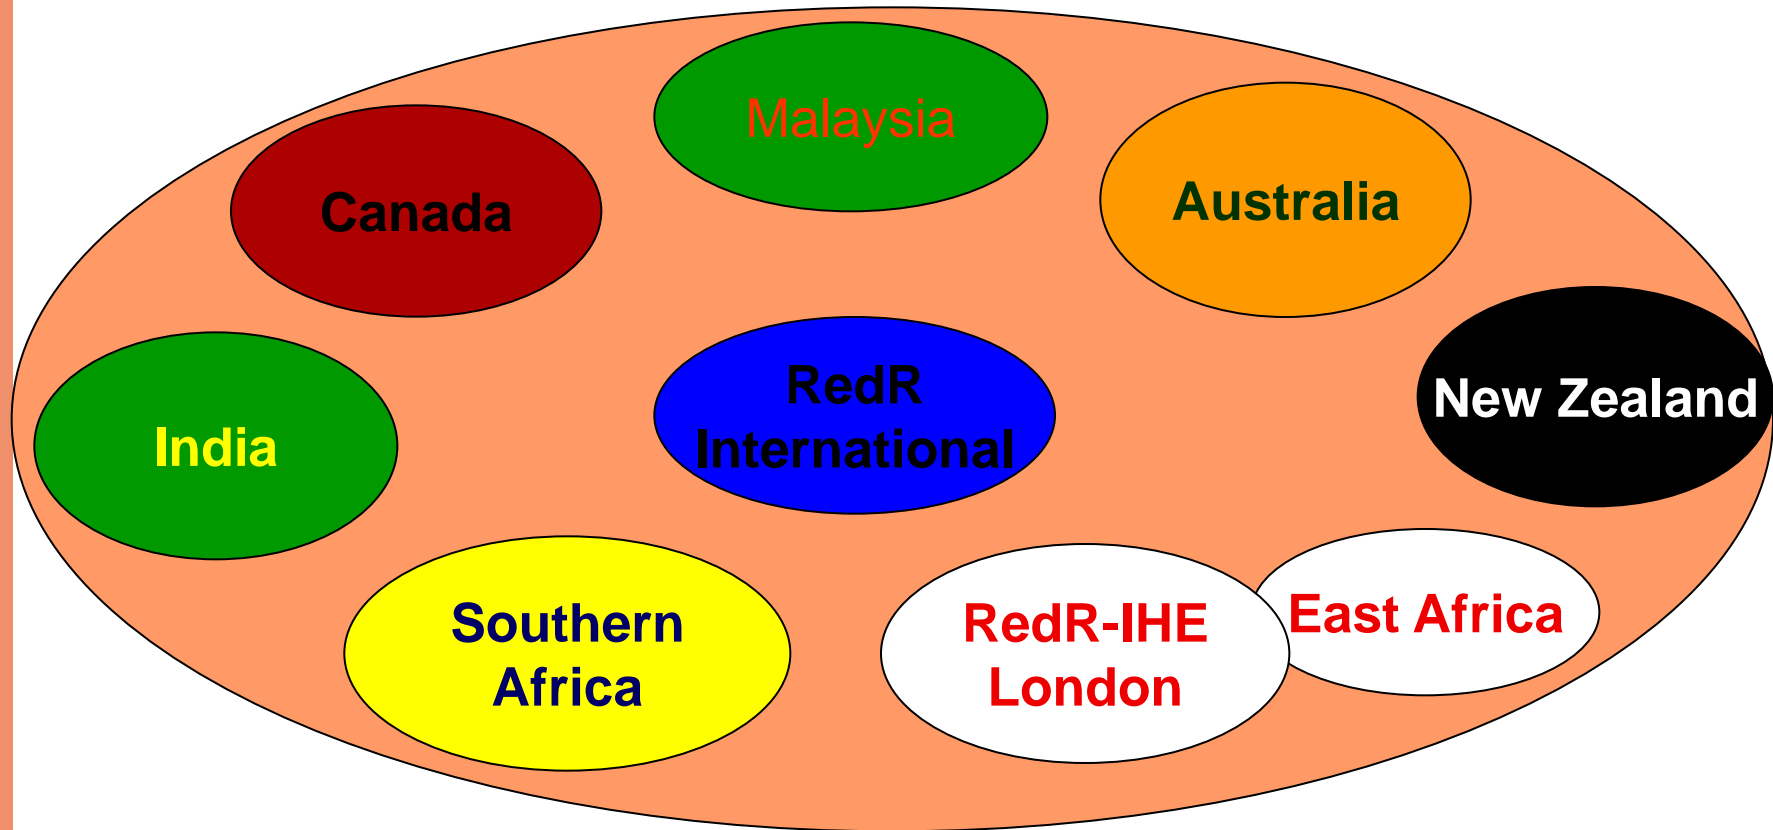

A world in which human suffering is alleviated, basic needs are met and rights are respected.

Mission:

We strive to relieve poverty, sickness and suffering by training, providing and supporting competent and committed people to humanitarian programmes.

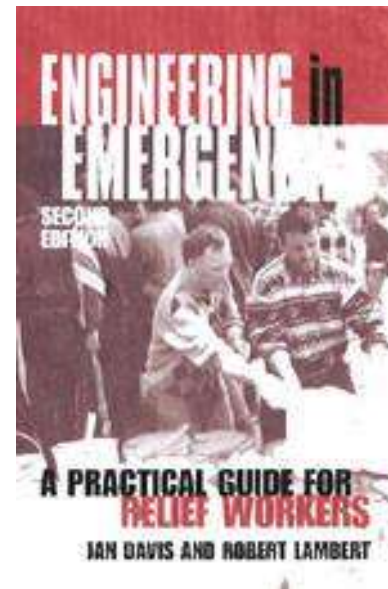

RedR - The Current International Family

RedR Value

- International network
- 25 years quality service
- Respected organisation
- High profile brand
- RedR support structure
- Focuses on sector needs
- Key resources – people & expertise

RedR

- Relief, recovery and development
- High quality expertise
- Quality control
- Area specialisation
- Integrated across disciplines
- Partnerships, global & local

RedR Core Activities

Disaster Management
Co-ordination
Training & Teaching
Empowerment
Recruitment of the right people in the right place
Accreditation

RedR Core Clients

Humanitarian Agencies
(NGO's)

Government Bodies

Local government

Commercial

Organisations

RedR Core Funding

Humanitarian Agencies (NGO's)
Government Agencies
Private Sector

RedR Delivery

4,500 trained in last year

20,000 on database

1600 registered operatives

in 30 countries

Field support units in

Afghanistan, Sudan, Sri Lanka,

Pakistan

Africa

- 315 million in extreme poverty
- 184 million suffer malnutrition
- 300 million no access to safe water

RedR Southern Africa

- South African Perspective
- Clients
- Membership
- Resources
- Activities

RedR Southern Africa Organisational Structure

The diagram illustrates the organizational structure of RedR Southern Africa. It consists of three horizontal ovals arranged vertically. The top oval is orange and contains the text 'RedR Southern Africa Members'. The middle oval is green and contains the text 'RedR Southern Africa Board of Trustees'. The bottom oval is also green and contains the text 'Executive & Staff'. A thick red horizontal bar is positioned above the ovals, and a light orange vertical bar is on the left side of the slide.

RedR Southern Africa Members

RedR Southern Africa Board of Trustees

Executive & Staff

RedR Southern Africa - Perspective

- Work with Governments
- Use local expertise to tackle local problems.
- Support relief for natural disasters
- Support relief for man - made disasters
- Support relief on disasters in the making

RedR Southern Africa - Resources

Qualified Engineers

Other built environment professionals

Persons already on the RedR data base

Professional Bodies

Universities

Technical Colleges

RedR Southern Africa - Activities

Place trained and qualified personnel with clients in disaster relief

Ensure the quality of the expertise available to clients.

Trains future operatives and clients in practical humanitarian areas, safety and security.

Provides technical & administrative back up to operatives and clients in the field.

RedR Southern Africa - Activities

Assesses the availability of resources in Africa for disaster relief

Promotes local solutions to practical problems exposed during humanitarian relief.

Encourages participation in humanitarian disaster relief at an early age by promoting participation at Universities and Technical Colleges.

RedR Southern Africa - Activities

Commence projects in South Africa before rolling out into Southern Africa

RedR Southern Africa - Activities

Core Activities:

- Training
- Placement
- Rapid response

Additional Projects:

- Agricultural – food security
- HIV/AIDS – Rural waste management
- Alternative technologies – Curriculum & text books
- Information – Publication of RedR literature

RedR Southern Africa – South African Rapid Response

Objective:

- To provide private sector rapid response assistance to Government & Municipal disaster relief

Funding:

- Private Sector – Disaster Relief Fund.

RedR Southern Africa

African Humanitarian
Expertise for Relief & Development

